Sterling "S" Distribution

Factsheet | 30 April 2026

This is a marketing communication. This is not a contractually binding document, and its issuance is not mandated under any law or regulation of the European Union. This marketing communication does not include sufficient detail to enable the recipient to make an informed decision. Please refer to the Prospectus of the UCITS and to the KIID before making any final investment decisions.

Objective and investment policy

Impax Global Equity Opportunities Fund (the Fund) aims to generate long term (5+ years) capital growth by investing globally in a portfolio of shares of public quoted companies. With a significant ESG integration approach, the Fund also aims to invest in companies that are well-positioned in the transition to a more sustainable global economy, as well as seeking to harness the opportunities. The Fund's investment universe is assessed through the "Impax Sustainability Lens" which aims to enable the prioritisation of investment in activities that have high opportunities (for example addressing climate change, providing access to finance and solving healthcare challenges) and low risks (for example health & safety vulnerability, bribery and corruption, climate change, biodiversity loss and pollution & waste).

The Fund has been classified as an Article 8 financial product for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector ("SFDR").

The Fund is actively managed and is not managed in reference to a benchmark.

Risk and reward profile

Manager ratings

For more information about this rating please visit <https://www.impaxam.com/assets/pdfs/square-mile/3D-Methodology-7p.pdf>

¹The Impax Composite Rating is calculated by assigning each security a numeric value (1 (highest) to 22 (lowest)) based on the ratings available from Statistical Rating Organizations (NRSRO), such as Standard & Poor's. The average of each securities numeric value is then converted to an equivalent quality rating from AAA (highest) to (D) (lowest). If multiple agencies rate the bond, the composite rating is based on all their ratings. If only one agency rates it, the composite rating is based on that single rating. If a security is Not Rated, a rating from other designated agencies may be used. Bonds with no third-party rating are designated as Not Rated. However, bonds labelled as Not Rated do not necessarily indicate low credit quality, and for such securities Impax may evaluate the credit quality and assign an internal rating. Holdings of the portfolio other than bonds are categorized under 'Other'. Credit ratings apply the underlying holdings of the portfolio and not to the strategy itself. The strategy itself has not been rated by an independent rating agency.

Impax Global Equity Opportunities Fund

Factsheet | 30 April 2026

Fund specific risks

Market risk: The Fund's investments are subject to market fluctuations, so they can fall as well as rise in value.

Currency risk: Fluctuation in exchange rates may reduce investment gains or income and increase losses. Additional risk should be considered where the fund's base currency differs from the currency of your own investments.

Emerging market risk: The Fund may invest in newly established companies whose future is dependent on (i) widespread adoption of their products and services and (ii) timely implementation of anticipated changes in local governmental policies; investments in companies in emerging markets or less developed countries in the region may face more political, economic or structural challenges than developed countries, putting your money at greater risk, and may be negatively impacted by changes in government policies, changes in taxation, restrictions in foreign investment and the movement of money from one country to another, currency fluctuations and other developments in the laws and regulations of countries in which investments may be made.

General risks

Market fluctuations: Potential investors should note that the investments of each Fund are subject to market fluctuations and that there can be no assurance that any appreciation in value will occur. The value of investments and the income from them, and therefore the value of, and income from the Shares, can go down as well as up and an investor may not get back the amount invested.

Cross liability between funds: The Company is established as a segregated portfolio company. As a matter of Irish law, the assets of one Fund will not be available to satisfy the liabilities of another. However, the Company is a single legal entity which may operate or have assets held on its behalf or be subject to claims in other jurisdictions which may not necessarily recognise such segregation. There is no guarantee that the courts of any jurisdiction outside Ireland will respect the limitations on liability associated with segregated portfolio companies nor is there any guarantee that the creditors of one Fund will not seek to enforce such Fund's obligations against another Fund.

Expenses charged to capital: Shareholders should note that all or part of expenses may be charged to the capital of a Fund in order to enhance distribution levels. This will have the effect of lowering the capital value of an investment in a Fund.

Substantial repurchases: Substantial repurchases by Shareholders may necessitate liquidation of investments. It is possible that losses may be incurred due to such liquidations that might otherwise not have arisen.

Temporary suspension: Investors are reminded that in certain circumstances their right to redeem or convert Shares may be temporarily suspended.

Liquidity risk: Substantial selling by shareholders may necessitate the Investment Manager having to sell investments, incurring losses that would otherwise not have arisen.

Investment risk: The Fund may invest in Participatory Notes (an instrument that is similar to owning shares) which may expose investors to losses where the issuer of the Participatory Note becomes insolvent or defaults on their obligations.

Sustainability risk: Sustainability risks are environmental, social and governance events or conditions whose occurrence could have an actual or potential material negative impact on the value of the Fund and all known types of risk of the Fund.

Dependence on the principals of the investment manager: The principals of the Investment Manager have authority to control the investment management of the Company. If, for any reason, the Investment Manager were to lose the services of these individuals, the Company might be adversely affected.

Performance fee: Any Performance Fee paid to the Investment Manager may create an incentive for the Investment Manager to cause a Fund to make investments that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case if there was no Performance Fee in place.

Political or regulatory risks: The value of a Fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties such as international political developments, changes in government policies, changes in taxation, restrictions in foreign investment and currency repatriation, currency fluctuations and other developments in the laws and regulations of countries in which investments may be made.

Controlling shareholder: There is no restriction on the percentage of the Company's Shares that may be owned by one person or a number of connected persons. It is possible, therefore, that one person, including a person or entity related to the Manager or the Investment Manager, may obtain control of the Company or of a Fund.
